track number one

koosvirgo

life goes on

there's no end in sight would there be an exit at all my feet refuse to move, oh close your eyes for a moment hold my hand here
let's run away to the future

like an echo in the forest another day will come
as if nothing happened
yeah life goes on

an arrow in the blue sky her day will fly by my pillow, on my table
this again
